

Prayer is not simply a Christian discipline; prayer is a necessity. It is our communication to a Holy God, our praise to the King. Prayer helps us become more like Jesus and is what touches His heart. Prayer is our lifeline.

It is imperative we fervently intercede for our nation and the uncertainties all around us. This year we celebrate 400 years of religious freedom but that may well be taken away sooner than we think. We must pray now for our leaders, our nation. However, closer to home we must pray for families, friends, our church, unbelievers, broken homes, those who are sick, enemies, school, jobs, and so much more.

Pray. Pray. Pray.
